

Learning for Life Foundation

The Learning for Life Foundation has been established whereby tax deductible charitable contributions can be made to local offices. The license agreement between local Learning for Life offices and national Learning for Life office provides an opportunity for local offices to raise funds using the Learning for Life designation by the IRS as a 501(c)3 organization. This new agreement will also provide an opportunity to raise government and private funds for local council use by national Learning for Life.