THIRD GRADE
Teacher’s Guide

Mission Statement
It is the mission of Learning for Life to enable young people to become responsible individuals by teaching positive character traits, career development, leadership, and life skills so they can make ethical choices and achieve their full potential.

Special Note: There are 36 lesson plans in this book divided into the following categories: Respect, Responsibility, Honesty/Trust, Caring/Fairness, Perseverance, Self-Discipline, Courage, Citizenship, and Life Skills. Even though lessons are divided into categories, many overlap and focus on similar issues.

The Learning for Life character education program has been developed to meet the critical needs of our nation’s schools and communities. It is designed to support schools and organizations in their efforts to prepare youth to successfully handle the complexities of contemporary society and to enhance their self-confidence, motivation, and self-esteem. Learning for Life will enhance social and life skills, assist in moral and character development, and help youth formulate positive personal values. This program will prepare youth to make ethical decisions that will help them achieve their full potential.

Program Methods
- Learning for Life features grade-appropriate, theme-oriented lesson plans to be used in the classroom to enhance and support the core curriculum.
- Learning for Life incorporates an action-learning process and uses teaching techniques such as role-playing, small-group discussions, reflective and moral dilemma exercises, and hands-on activities.
- Learning for Life suggests that you teach one lesson each week. Lessons are designed to last approximately 45 minutes to an hour. A lesson may offer more activities than time allows. It is at the discretion of the teacher to select which activities to conduct during the time allotted or to decide to continue the lesson at another time.

Family/Home Activity
Every lesson plan in this book has a family/home activity. This is a character-building lesson that the student takes home to do with a parent or guardian. The family/home activity reinforces the lesson that was done in the classroom and gives parents/guardians an opportunity to participate in the character development of their child.

Recognition Plan
Learning for Life offers a recognition plan for youth that will motivate positive behavior, foster a sense of belonging to the group, assist in building self-esteem, and reward a positive work ethic. See the Classroom Instructions for a breakdown of suggested lesson plan sets with appropriate recognitions.

Instructor Training
A Learning for Life representative will conduct a brief Learning for Life training course for all teachers, volunteers, and school administrators. For additional information on training, go to www.learningforlife.org.

Good Books Teach Character
On page 5 you will find a list of children’s books that reinforce many of the lessons in this book. The list includes books that focus on each of the nine character traits taught through the Learning for Life lessons: Respect, Responsibility, Honesty/Trust, Caring/Fairness, Perseverance, Self-Discipline, Courage, Citizenship, and Life Skills.

STEM Activities
This logo denotes an activity that incorporates STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) disciplines.

Art Activities
This logo denotes an activity that integrates art.

Anti-Bullying Activities
This logo denotes an activity that focuses on avoiding bullying behavior.
Display the Honor Wall chart in a prominent part of your classroom and write each student’s name on the chart. The honor wall chart (SKU 615998) and stickers (SKU 32136) can be obtained through the local council or by visiting www.learningforlife.org.

As you complete a set of lessons, affix one sticker by each student’s name and give one to the student to put on his or her individual honor chart. There are 15 different recognition stickers. You’ll notice that there is a difference in the number of assigned themes and recognition stickers; this is by design to allow the classroom teacher flexibility in selecting which recognition sticker to give. In some instances, three or four lessons may be used in a certain area before one sticker is given.

Following is the suggested breakdown of stickers and corresponding lessons.
